

From: KULINA@aol.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/3/02 1:42am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Here is my opinion: the DOJ should discontinue wasting the government's(my taxes)monies on prosecuting or mediating a settlement. I, as a consumer of computer products, never felt harmed by Microsoft. The nine states not settling are fishing for money and the courts should dismiss any actions filed by them. I think the DOJ should be held in contempt for "restraint of trade". One man's opinion....

Marty Kulina
206. 972.9704